Membership Information

Unlike many associations, membership in the ACMLA is for an entire firm, not just an individual person. Each member firm should identify a Designated Representative that will receive all correspondence and billing information. Additional contacts within a firm can also be added to the correspondence list for information on upcoming events, if desired.

Benefits of Membership:

Professional Networking
Current Market Updates

Informative Speakers
Legislative Updates

Membership in ACMLA is open to members of firms that are directly involved in originating commercial real estate loans or other related service providers to the real estate lending industry. Please indicate your firm type below:

Dues and Payment Information

ACMLA's fiscal year runs from July through June. Membership dues include one complimentary monthly lunch per member firm. Additional people within the firm and guests are also welcome to attend meetings with payment on a per-meeting basis or a discounted annual rate. New members joining at various times of the year may be eligible for pro-rations of dues as determined by the board.

Annual Dues: Invoices are sent during August each year for the annual dues which are currently $450.00 and are due prior to the October meeting. Additional members from the same firm are currently $400 each.

Application Fee: $100 (waived for individuals who were members of a previous firm). This application should be accompanied by a check made out to ACMLA in the amount of the application fee or by registration on the website www.acmla.net. New members will be invoiced the remaining amount due when their membership application has been approved. Payment may be made at any regular meeting or by mail. Checks, cash, or credit cards are accepted.

Meeting Schedule

Monthly meetings are held from September through May and are on the 2nd Tuesday of every month. There are no meetings in June, July, or August. Members are also encouraged to join committees that may have additional meeting times.
